

Conifer Holdings, Inc. and its subsidiaries and business partners Privacy Policy

This is our “privacy notice” to you. You have probably received similar notices from other insurance companies, insurance agencies, associations, renting companies, banks, and credit card companies. You receive these sorts of notices because Federal and state laws require your financial institutions to explain to you how they handle your “nonpublic personal information.”

“Nonpublic personal information” is personal information about you or your finances that you provide to us or we obtain when we do business with you. This information is generally private and unavailable to the general public.

When we refer to “we” or “us” we mean Conifer Holdings, Inc. and its subsidiaries, business partners, entities we have contractual relationships, including but not limited to Sycamore Insurance Agency, Inc., Conifer Insurance Company, Kapnick Insurance Agency and THE Scion Group, LLC, Student Housing Association, Inc.

We do not sell your information to anyone, we do not share your information with anyone but our own subsidiaries and business partners listed above as well as others who provide services to us when we work for you and within our Company and with our business partners, we communicate the need to protect your information to those who may have access to it, and we’ve established physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards to protect your information. We even protect your information after you are no longer our customer.

We may share information about you that is not publicly available. We may share this information now or in the future. We do this for several reasons: to serve you, to identify you as our customer or our former customer, to process your policy and requests quickly, to pay your claim and to develop products we believe you will want and use. The information about you that we collect and where it comes from varies depending on how we are serving you.

Information from you – when submitting your application or requesting an insurance quote, you may give us information such as your name, address, telephone number, birth date, driver’s license number, and social security number.

Information about your transactions – we may keep information about our transactions with us, such as the products you purchase from us, the amount you paid for insurance, your account balances, or payment history.

From other outside sources – we may also collect other information. This may include information from consumer reporting agencies such as your credit history, credit scores, driving record, employment, or we may ask a doctor for more information about our medical history.

We share your information with service providers who help us to help you

Sometimes we may share your information with a company or business that is not officially connected to us but who may do work on our behalf. These service providers need access to your information to provide these operational or other support services. Examples of the sorts of services that these companies may do are printing payment coupons, preparing or mailing account statements, processing customer transactions, serving renters companies, associations or software programming, claims adjusting or helping us market our own products. To make sure that your information stays confidential and secure, these service providers must agree to safeguard your information the same way we do.

We also share your information for other legal and routine business reasons

The privacy laws permit us to disclose information we have about you in other situations. We can disclose your information: If you say we can or tell us to, to protect against insurance fraud or unauthorized transactions, to control the risk of our insurance transactions, to resolve a dispute between us or answer your questions, to persons who hold some legal or beneficial interest relating to you, to persons who are acting in a fiduciary or representative on your behalf, to industry and professional organizations that ask us for customer information in order to conduct research studies that never identify individuals, to State guaranty funds or agencies, and our examiners, attorneys, accountants, and auditors, to a consumer reporting agency, or from a consumer report from a consumer reporting agency, to an actual or potential buyer or investor in some or all of this company, to comply with federal, state, or local laws, rules, and other applicable legal requirements, to comply with a civil, criminal, or regulatory investigation, subpoena, or summons by a governmental authority, to respond to a subpoena or to our regulators and/or if otherwise required by law.

Finally, if we do provide your information to any party outside our company we require them to abide by the same privacy standards as indicated here.

We do not share your information with anyone else

The insurance companies, banks and credit card companies with which you deal sometimes share your information with other banks, motor vehicle manufacturers or dealers, health clubs, travel agencies, car rental agencies, hotels, airlines, or publishers, so they can offer you their own financial or non-financial products and services.

We do not share your information with any such outside companies that we do not have a business relationship.
